Overview

Enjoy a four-night luxury escape at Rangelands Outback Camp, with VIP access to Festival of Outback Opera events including Dark Sky Serenade, All Together Now and the Opening Night Recital. Explore the outback with guided experiences at the Australian Age of Dinosaurs and the Rangelands Rifts, and take part in the Cultural Conversation in Winton. Indulge in gourmet dining with fine wines, champagne and premium beer, plus a special Long Lunch at the Qantas Founders Museum. Return economy flights from Brisbane to Longreach and luxury ensuite glamping accommodation are included for a seamless, elevated outback getaway. Arrive on your QantasLink flight to Longreach and transfer to Winton’s exclusive Rangelands Outback Camp, set atop a striking mesa on a private cattle station. Check into your super-sized luxury en suite tent and take in the sweeping views across “dinosaur country”. As the outback sky softens into gold and amber hues, gather on Sunset Deck for cocktails and canapés, complemented by an entertaining bush poet performance, before a chef prepared gourmet dinner. Fine wines, champagne and premium beer are included. 4 Nights Rangelands Outback Camp

Itinerary

1

Monday – Brisbane (D)

Arrive on your QantasLink flight to Longreach and transfer to Winton’s exclusive Rangelands Outback Camp, set atop a striking mesa on a private cattle station. Check into your super-sized luxury en suite tent and take in the sweeping views across “dinosaur country”. As the outback sky softens into gold and amber hues, gather on Sunset Deck for cocktails and canapés, complemented by an entertaining bush poet performance, before a chef prepared gourmet dinner. Fine wines, champagne and premium ...

2

Tuesday – Winton (B,L,D)

Depart Blackall for Isisford to explore the Outer Barcoo Interpretation Centre, where the stories of the region’s landscapes and people are shared in an audio-visual presentation. The main attraction is a life-sized replica of Isisfordia Duncani, an ancient crocodilian ancestor from around 98 million years ago. Enjoy morning tea before continuing to Ilfracombe for lunch at the iconic Wellshot Hotel. The oldest pub in the west has loads of quirky and interesting memorabilia not to mention a li...

3

Wednesday – Winton (B,D)

After another delicious chef-prepared breakfast, the day is yours. Choose an optional ¾-day tour to historic Carisbrooke Station and the Dinosaur Stampede (lunch included), or spend the morning in Winton browsing opal shops, visiting the Waltzing Matilda Centre, or taking a scenic helicopter flight for a snapshot of the dramatic mesa landscape (own arrangements for lunch). Note: Please request pricing for these optional activities. Return to Rangelands early afternoon to unwind before an earl...

4

Thursday – Winton (B,L,D)

Enjoy breakfast at the North Gregory Hotel before stepping into the heart of Australia’s cultural identity at the Waltzing Matilda Centre, where the legend of Banjo Paterson’s song, and Winton’s heritage is celebrated through a variety of interactive displays. Later, join a thought-provoking Cultural Conversation with lunch at the North Gregory Hotel, offering insights into the stories and people of the outback. Enjoy some free time before the evening unfolds into one of the trip’s most magic...

5

Friday – Longreach (B,L)

Savour a final relaxed breakfast at Rangelands before transferring to Longreach for the Long Lunch at Qantas Founders Museum. Indulge in an exquisite multi-course chef's menu paired with fine wines, accompanied by a "degustation of song" performed by Opera Queensland artists. The marriage of gastronomy and music provides a fitting finale to your outback adventure. You will be transferred to Longreach Airport for your connecting flight back to Brisbane. Note: Due to your 2.50pm flight departur...
