Overview

Discover Queensland's coast, culture and reef restoration, starting with a private eco-cruise through the Noosa Everglades and an overnight stay in unique Paperbark Glamping Tents at Noosa Habitat. Journey north via Rockhampton to Great Keppel Island for two nights, including a glass-bottom boat coral discovery cruise, beach time, and a ranger-guided Woppaburra cultural walk with storytelling. Continue to Turtle Sands in the Mon Repos turtle region for two nights, visiting Monsoon Aquatics for a behind-the-scenes coral restoration tour, plus Bundaberg Rum, Tinaberries and a relaxing winery lunch. Departing Brisbane Coach Terminal aboard our 100% carbon offset luxury 'Gold Class' coach, relax as the city gives way to forest pockets and views of the Glass House Mountains. On arrival at Noosa Habitat, enjoy a relaxed morning tea before boarding our private Everglades eco cruise. Glide through mirror-calm waters framed by paperbarks and river reeds, and discover why this is one of only two everglade systems on Earth, a tranquil haven of pristine wilderness and abundant birdlife. Returning to Habitat, savour a delicious lunch before settling into your Paperbark Glamping Tent. 1 Night Stay: Paperbark Glamping Tents, Habitat Noosa Everglades Eco Camp
